

ROZHINKES MIT MANDLEN

RAISINS AND ALMONDS

By ABRAHAM GOLDFADEN
(1840-1906)

Am Em Am Em

In dem beys ha - mik - dash in a vin - kl chey - der, Zitst di al -
In the ho - ly Tem - ple, all a - lone in a cor - ner, Sits the old

Am Dm Am C Em C

mo - ne bas - tsi - oyn a - leyn. Ir ben - yo - chi - dl i - de - le vigt zi ke - wid - ow, the Daugh - ter of Zion. And she rocks her young son, ly - ing there in the

Dm E7 Am

sey - der, Un zingt im tsum shlo - fn a li - de - le sheyn: Un - tern yi - de - le's cra - dle, And sings him to sleep with this sweet lul - la - by: 'Neath the cra - dle of

Dm Am Dm Am

vi - ge - le, Shteyt a klor - vays tsi - ge - le. Dos my young son, Stands a goat, yes, a pure white one. The

Dm E7 Am Dm tsi - ge - le iz ge - fo - rn han - dlen, Dos vet zayn dayn ba - lit - tle goat has been fat - ed to wan - der, That will be your fate,

Am E7 F Dm

ruf. Ro - zhin - kes mit man - dlen, too. Rai - sins sweet and al - monds,

E7 Am E7 Am

Shlof - zhe, yi - de - le, shlof, Shlof - zhe, yi - de - le, shlof.
Sleep then, my lit - tle Jew, Sleep then, my lit - tle Jew.